THE MURDEROUS CYCLONE

Ogle County, Illinois, Scene of Many Deaths and Much Damage.

Much Live Stock Killed—Hundreds of Buildings Demolished.

Rockford, Ill., May 19.—Eleven people are known to be dead and two score or more badly injured as a result of the destructive cyclone which swept over Ogle county last night. The storm came from the southwest and was from 300 to 400 feet wide. It levelled everything in its path, demolishing hundreds of farm houses and barns and killing much live stock. The storm was severest in Stillman valley, where it wrecked 15 buildings, two churches and the depot. Great damage was also done at Adeline, many buildings being razed to the ground. Railroads report many washouts and telegraph and telephone wires badly affected. The list of the dead and injured as far as reported in this section are: Michael Nelson, Mrs. M. Nelson, Julia Nelson, 6 months son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, at Stillman valley; Wm. Rees, Marion; Thomas Mullens, Adeline; three children of Mr. and Mrs. John Mass, Foreston; Mrs. Schindler, Adeline; Mrs. Frank Chichleher, Pawpaw. The severely injured are: The 2-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Nelson, both legs broken, severely hurt and will probably die; Mrs. M. J. Bly and baby, Stillman valley, recovery doubtful; Holquist Peter, E. Fisher, Stillman valley; Mrs. John Mass, family of Everett Ludwig, Mrs. Eli Timmers, Foreston.

WATCHING FOR CERVERA'S FLEET.

Guarding Windward and Yucatan Passages—Prognostications Concerning the Oregon.

New York, May 19.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says:

As far as known, the three American squadrons concentrated off the coast of Cuba are still maintaining the blockade of the north coast and guarding the southern approaches to Yucatan passage at the western end, and Windward passage at the eastern end of the island. No encounter with Admiral Cervera's vessels is looked for within two or three days, nor is it yet apparent that the Spanish commander will risk a battle except under conditions which he can himself determine.

The Oregon, if she left Bahia at the time reported in the present dispatches, has not yet had time to make the run from Bahia to Barbadoes, and is probably still steaming north somewhere off the Guyana coast. There is good reason to think the big battleship will report ultimately to the Navy department, not from Key West, but from some harbor much higher up on the Atlantic coast.

GLADSTONE'S DEATH.

Grand Old Man Gathered to His Fathers Early This Morning.

End Peaceful—Universal and Great Sorrow and Grief.

Hawarden, Eng., May 19.—Gladstone's death occurred at 5 o'clock this morning. The tolling of Hawarden church bells carried the sad tidings to every sorrowing home in this vicinity. The family was summoned at 2 a. m., owing to the perceptible sinking noticed by the medical watchers. From that time until Gladstone peacefully passed away, no one left his death chamber. The only absentee was little Dorothy Drew, who tearfully complained that her grandfather did not recognize her.

London, May 19.—The deepest manifestations of grief are seen throughout the whole country. Flags are half-masted and bells tolling, shades are drawn, and in the public galleries here pictures of Gladstone have been draped with crepe.

The queen and Prince of Wales sent touching expressions of condolence to the widow.

Details from Hawarden castle of the passing away of the great English statesman show the end to have been the most peaceful imaginable. There was no sign of pain or distress. Mrs. Gladstone clasped her husband's hand and occasionally kissed it, while Rev. Stephen Gladstone, who was present, repeated hymns. The nurse meanwhile bathed the brow of the patient, who showed signs of gratitude, murmuring, "How nice." Then came a gentle, almost imperceptible cessation of life in the midst of his son's prayer, and the weeping family slowly filed from the room, taking Mrs. Gladstone, who was induced to lie down and soon slept quietly.

Very many telegrams of sympathy are arriving at Hawarden. President Faure, of France, has telegraphed condolences.

The last word spoken by Gladstone was "Amen," when his son, Rev. Stephen Gladstone, had recited the litany.
